Readings:

Is 6:1-2a, 3-8/1

1 Cor 15:1-11

Lk 5:1-11

In today's Gospel, after the press of the crowds, Jesus convinces Simon to let him teach from the boat. Then he tells him to head out into deep water to fish. All of a sudden the subject was changed from Jesus healing and preaching to teaching, and while initially that's what is literally happening, it doesn't stay that way for long. It's a setup for the greater point of the story: "From now on you will be catching men."

It's not just Simon and the sons of Zebedee that get led into this convenient little scenario. Gospels are not just quaint stories. They are good news for us as well. Jesus gets into life with us, much like he got into Simon's boat. He tells us to go out a little farther, that is, to stretch our faith a little more. And even when we want to give up ("we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing") he tells us to cast into the deep. Trusting in him, we find that wondrous things happen as we witness to the meaning of Jesus in our lives. In the end, the example of our faith is to lead others to Jesus. That's where instead of fish, we'll be catching men and women.

Eucharistic Adoration

Every Monday when school is in session, we have a holy hour of adoration and prayer from 4:00 to 5:00 p.m. in our Chapel. The Eucharist is exposed at 4:00 p.m., and the holy hour closes with benediction at 5:00 p.m. Everyone is welcome to come and pray at any time during the hour.

The Call to Serve the Poor and Vulnerable:

A Study of the Lives of St. Vincent de Paul and St. Francis Assisi

This three-week class begins this Tuesday, Feb. 9, and will explore the lives of these two saints and how they have lived out Christ's call to serve the poor and vulnerable. Through their witness and example we can be both inspired to live out this calling in our own lives and gain a deeper understanding of the Church's mission of social justice in the world today. Join Brian Ziegler as he teaches this class on Tuesday nights, Feb. 9, 16, and 23, from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. in Meeting Room #2.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

The purpose of this ministry is to reach out to someone in need of comfort after a loss, in times of stress, before a medical procedure, during an illness, etc. Shawls can be knitted or crocheted, and all skill levels are welcome. This semester the group is meeting at 7:00 p.m. in the Upper Room on the 1st and 3rd Mondays and the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays of the month. This week we will meet on Wednesday, Feb. 10. Newcomers are always welcome! For more information, please contact Judy Hedman at 537-1078.

Choir Rehearsal

Choir rehearsal for the weekend Masses is held on Wednesday and Thursdays at 7:00 p.m. upstairs in the Music Room. If you are interested in singing in the choir, join us for one of the rehearsals this week.

Vocation Discussion Dinner for Men

This Thursday, Feb. 11, Fr. Keith will have a dinner and discussion for young men who are interested in learning more about the priesthood. The dinner will begin at 6:00 p.m. in the Upper Room. This semester the focus is on different priests who became canonized saints, beginning with St. Valentine on Feb. 11. If you are interested in coming, please contact Fr. Keith at 539-7496 or email stisidores@stisidores.com by this Tuesday, Feb. 9, so he will know how much food to prepare.

Women's Bible Study

Join other K-State women for an hour of reflection and study on Paul's letter to the Philippians. This Bible Study meets at 6:00 p.m. in Meeting Room #2 every Thursday. Female students are welcome to join at any time. Email Emily Bergkamp, Campus Minister, for more information at emilyb@stisidores.com.

"Why Do We Keep Sunday Holy?" is the topic for this week's Men's Bible Study led by Fr. Keith. We meet on Thursday evenings at 8:30 p.m. in Meeting Room #1, but each week is a "stand alone" class, so you do not need to attend every Thursday to be a part of this study. All male college students are welcome.

Praise and Worship

Praise and Worship meets Thursday evenings at 8:30 p.m. in the Chapel. Any K-State student is welcome to attend.

St. Isidore's Student Ambassadors

We are currently accepting applications for St. Isidore's Student Ambassadors. Student Ambassadors represent the student community of St. Isidore's Catholic Student Center at permanent community and fundraising events in Manhattan and throughout the state. Their primary purpose is to serve as a bridge between the students and the permanent community, alumni and potential donors.

► For a complete description of the ambassador position and an application, see Mary Lou in the office, or email application requests and questions to Mandi McKinley, Stewardship Director, at mandim@stisidores.com. Applications are due this Friday, Feb. 12.

Spring Break Mission Trip Meeting

All participants for this year's Spring Break Trip will meet next Sunday, Feb. 14, from 8:30 to 9:30 in Meeting Room #1.

If you would like to attend, please email stisidores@stisidores.com by Wed., Feb. 24, or sign up at the table in the lobby.

Busy Student Retreat — Feb. 21-25

The Busy Student Retreat is a great way to start your Lent! This year's spiritual directors are: Bishop Emeritus George Fitzsimons, Sr. Barbara Apaceller, CSJ, Sr. Lois O'Malley, CSJ, Sr. Karen Salsbery, CSJ, Fr. Loren Werth, and Fr. Mitchel Zimmerman. The opening session will be Sunday, Feb. 21, at 7:00 p.m. in Newman Hall. At that time, the retreat process will be explained and directors introduced.

Purpose of the Busy Student Retreat

- To grow and strengthen your personal relationship with God through spiritual direction.
- To learn how to balance your busy life as a student and make prayer a part of it.

Components of the Retreat

- Opening prayer and introductions Sunday at 7:00 p.m.
- Daily meeting (30 minutes, Monday through Thursday) with a Spiritual Director to listen to you, help clarify what is happening in your life, and give helpful insight into your prayer life.
- Personal prayer and reflection on scripture readings (30 minutes daily).

➔ To sign up for this retreat, call Mary Lou, 539-7496.

Works of Mercy Tour

We are excited to announce that our first summer mission trip will take place May 16-26, 2010. This will be a service tour within New York State, stopping in cities like Rochester to the Bronx, and even some pilgrimage stops like the St. Patrick's Cathedral in NYC—not to mention a bit of sightseeing in spots like Niagara Falls. We will strive to reach out to others as we live out the Corporal Works of Mercy. For more information, please contact Brian at brian.ziegler@stisidores.com.

Diocesan Pastoral Plan

The Salina Diocese is implementing a Pastoral Plan to help renew and deepen the faith of our Church through the diocese. There will be a celebration to implement the plan on Sunday, June 6, (Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ) at Fort Hays State University. Everyone in the diocese is welcome to attend.

Seven Dolors Food Pantry

The food pantry has continued to see an increased number of people needing assistance. Current needs are sugar, peanut butter, spaghetti sauce, canned pinto beans, and cold cereal. Any support is appreciated.

Women's Spirituality Conference

"Those Feisty Women of the Gospel" is being presented by Kathy Coffey, a nationally renowned speaker and writer on Saturday, Feb. 27, 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., at St. Thomas More Parish Center. Registration fee is $25. Brochures are available on the table in the lobby.
