30th Sunday Ordinary Time

Readings:

Ex 22:20-26
1 Thes 1:5c-10
Mt 22:34-40

In today's Gospel reading from Matthew, the Pharisees were again questioning Jesus' knowledge of the laws of Moses and the Jewish faith. When asked which is the greatest, he responded simply but matter-of-factly that "you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind." He then explained that as a natural extension of this greatest of all commandments, we are to love our neighbors as ourselves, meaning no matter who we meet, we are to love them as God loves each of us.

According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, this love of God and each other is known as the path of charity. Charity is the greatest social commandment. It respects others and their rights. It requires the practice of justice, and it alone makes us capable of justice. Charity inspires a life of self-giving (CCC 1889). When faced with a difficult situation, if we remember the greatest commandment-to love one another-we will find a clear path to resolving the difficulty.

Men's Bible Study

Fr. Keith teaches a men's bible study on the Gospel of Matthew Thursday evenings at 8:30 p.m. in Meeting Room #1. Each week is a "stand alone" class, so you do not need to attend every Thursday to be part of this study. All male college students are welcome.

Sacrament Education Class and Discussion Group

K-State students meet weekly Thursday evenings at 9:00 p.m. in Meeting Room #2 to learn more about the Sacraments and discuss living faith as college students. You do not need to sign up for this group or attend every session. If you are looking for a way to meet other students at St. Isidore's and learn more about your faith, join us this Thursday, Oct. 30, when we will focus on the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick.

Book of Remembrance

During the month of November, we traditionally remember and pray for those who have died. Here at St. Isidore's, we do this in a special way with our Book of Remembrance. If you have deceased family members and friends that you would like our St. Isidore's community to pray for, please pick up a remembrance sheet from the table in the lobby. Complete the form, and return it to the office or place it in the collection basket at a weekend Mass. Our book will have a prominent place in the Chapel during the entire month as a reminder of those whose lives have touched ours and have now "gone before us, marked with the sign of faith."

Feast of All Saints—Saturday, Nov. 1

Since the Feast of All Saints falls on a Saturday this year, the precept to attend Mass on this day is abrogated. It is not a day of obligation.

Subscription Sunday—Diocesan Paper

Next weekend is Subscription Sunday for the Register, our diocesan newspaper. This year every household of registered parishioners throughout the diocese will receive a copy of the Oct. 31st issue. A subscription envelope will be included in that issue. The subscription rate remains at $20 per year. Each parish or institution throughout the diocese is required to have 1/3 of their members subscribe. If we do not have 128 households of our permanent community members subscribe, St. Isidore's is required to pay the difference to the diocese. Please consider renewing or taking out a new subscription to our diocesan paper. Thank you!
