Readings:

Dt 18:15-20
1 Cor 7:32-35
Mk 1:21-28

In today's Gospel, Jesus is the confident, self-assured teacher. Yes, he works a miracle. But before we get caught up in that, we should look at how Mark portrays him. Right at the beginning of the Gospel, Jesus enters the synagogue in Capernaum and starts to teach. Unlike the scribes who would appeal to the words of Jewish teachers to support their teaching, Jesus comes across as confident in his own authority. He has no need to reference what others have handed on. Instead, his teaching commands respect because he shows its truth through his deeds.

We can become confident in our faith by practicing it. As we see in the Gospel from the very first chapter of Mark, Jesus was confident in both word and deed. We can do the same. By reading the Scriptures regularly we become attuned to Christ's teaching. We absorb the knowledge, and by acting on Christ's teaching through our worship of God and love of neighbor we are performing the deeds of faith. The skills become second nature as we put into practice what we have been taught by Christ.

Music/Choir Information

A great way to get involved at St. Isidore's is through our music ministry—by cantoring, playing an instrument, or singing in a choir. Choirs rehearse once a week and sing at one of the following Sunday Masses—9:30 a.m., 11:00 a.m., or 4:30 p.m. Cantors and a pianist lead the music at the Saturday 5:00 and Sunday 6:00 Mass. If you are interested, please come to rehearsal this week at one of the following times: Tuesday at 7:00 p.m.; or Wednesday at 7:00 p.m. upstairs in the Music Room, or contact Frank at franks@stisidores.com or 785-539-7496.
